Who We Are

We wish to mobilize, engage and equip volunteers to minister to those impacted by crime, to the end that offenders are transformed, relationships are reconciled and communities are restored.

Our Vision

To be a reconciling community of restoration for all involved in or affected by crime, thereby proclaiming and demonstrating the redemptive and transforming power of Christ for all people.

Our Mission

To work with and through the church and the community for the transformation, reconciliation, and restoration of inmates, ex-offenders, their families, victims, and communities.
